

RESETTING OF THE WARRIOR HEART

“Freedom is useless if we don’t exercise it as characters making choices... We are free to change the stories by which we live.”
- Daniel Taylor

Healing and Wholeheartedness is the greatest life there is with Christ.

The healing and wholeheartedness is a process over a lifetime.

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us - Hebrews 12.1

We have been called for this exact moment in all of history to be the warrior God has called us to be.

It’s time as a warrior that we kill the poser.

The wounds we carry with us do not disqualify us, but they become beacons of hope for a world in battle longing to know there is healing.

The level in which we embrace the pain of recovery will have a direct result to the strength we walk in from here on.

Round One Questions

“The hand of the Lord was on me, and he brought me out by the Spirit of the Lord and set me in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. He led me back and forth among them, and I saw a great many bones on the floor of the valley, bones that were very dry. He asked me, “Son of man, can these bones live?” I said, “Sovereign Lord, you alone know.” - Ezekiel 37:1-3

The battle is right in front of us for us to take on.

The adventure is all around us calling us to embrace it.

The beauty we love is the greatest gift we have received, therefore may we continue to lay it all down for her.

It’s not just about our battle, our adventure, our beauty...it is also about pouring into those around us the wisdom, strength, for fortitude we carry.

“The Lord Is A Warrior, And That Is His Name.” - Exodus 15.3

Round Two Questions

“And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.” - Hebrews 10.24-25

We were created by a triune God, for community, to the community.

The warrior is never called to the fight alone.

The adventure was never meant to be done alone.

The beauty to love is only fully loved when we give all of who we are.

Who is the warrior beside you today?

“It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and bloody who strive valiantly...who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotional who spends himself in a worthy cause, who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who have never known neither victory nor death.” - Teddy Roosevelt
